At the meeting of the Police Board yesterday the following rules for promotion in the department were adopted:

"1. Promotion of officers and members of the police force shall be made by the Board of Police on grounds of 'seniority, meretorious poilce service, and superior capacity."

"2. All promotions shall be made from elletble lists for each grade, prepared at such times as the Board of Police shall direct. '4. Eligible lists shall contain the names o the following elements: Meritorious police service and seniority......

"5. The rating for 'meritorious police service and seniority 'shall be determined by the Roard of Police and shall be based upon past records for integrity, efficiency, and zeal in the department, ability and success as commanding officers, intelligence and discretion in the ing officers, intelligence and discretion in the performance of duty, personal character and standing as private citizens, special gallant or commendable service, involving hazard or danger: the successful detection and punishment of criminals, reports of superior officers, length of service in the department, and, in general, a full and complete consideration of the officer's record in the department, giving in all cases, where other considerations are equal, the advantage to seniority.

where other considerations are equal, the advantage to seniority.

"6. The rating for 'superior capacity' shall be determined by a competitive examination, held under the direction of the Police Board. This examination shall be practical in its character, and consist of a careful investigation as to the candidate's knowledge of the laws of the State of New York in regard to the suppression of crime, preservation of the peace, the apprehension of criminals, and practice in the minor courts; the ordinances of the city, minor military tactics, rules and regulations of the department, and such other practical subjects as may be added, from time to time, by order of the Board of Police."

be added, from time to time, by order of the Board of Police."

Commissioner Andrews recommended the adoption of the rules, and moved that Acting Chief Conlin be cited to appear before the Board of Conmissioners at noon on Friday to be examined for full Chief. The motion was passed.

Commissioner Andrews said that at present Mr. Conlin was the only applicant for the post of Chief. Others of the Captains and Inspectors could apply, he said, but it is understood that Mr. Conlin will have the field to himself. It has been the intention of the Commissioners from the first to make Conlin Chief, and, it is said, there is no opposition from any quarter to his confirmation.

The matter of adopting regulations for promotions in the department has been the subject of consideration for several weeks. Now that the rules have been formulated and passed upon, promotions will be rapidly made. It is very likely that Conlin will be made full Chief immediately after his examination on Friday.

Under the new rules all members of the force may apply to be examined for promotion, but the Commissioners will decide whether or not they shall be cited for examination. They will judge by an applicant's record whether he should be examined.

Commissioner Grant said after the meeting that promosions would be made as rapidly as possible from now on.

We first want to appoint the Chief," he sided. "After that we may appoint the Inspectors, but we may first have examinations for Captains. There are so many vacancies of Captains and so few Captains to compete for in.

The Deputy Chief will not be appointed until after the first of the year, but the other promotions will be made pretty soon."

Capt. Jonaid Grant of the Madison street station and Capt. Adam Cross of Leonard street, it is said, stand a good chance for being made inspectors. Acting Inspectors Cortright, Brooks, and McCullagh will probably be confirmed. It is also understood that Acting Capt. O'Brien will be left in charge of the Detective Bureau. Roundsman John W. Goodwin of the West 125th street station, who was arrested on Saturday for drunkenness, was ordered to be examined by the Board of Surgeons. Commissioner Roosevelt said it had been reported that Goodwin was insane, but he had heard that he was suffering from delirium tremens. Goodwin's trial before the Board is set for Thursday, but it will probably be adjourned.

Acting Chief Coolin reported the following transfers of the former roundsmen who were remanded to patrol duty by the Board last week: James McDermott, from Church street to Macdougal street; Thomas Brady, East 126th street to East Fifty-first street; John M. Are There Any A. P. A. Police Lodgest A story was circulated yesterday that several police Captains had joined the A. P. A. and that A. P. A. lodges were being organized in the department. The story is discredited at Headquarters. Commissioner Recovert said that he knew nothing about it, and Acting Chief Conlin declared it could not be true.

Aldermen Keep the Governor's Room Intact. The Board of Aldermen discussed yesterday with a good deal of heat and patriotic ardor the report of the Committee on County Affairs, which recommended that the library of the city be removed to the two small rooms opening from the Governor's room, and that the room now occupied by the library be given to Trial Term, Part III., of the City Court. GLASSMAN ROBERTS IS MAD.

His Wife Tells How She Had to Go t Europe with Illm at a Moment's Notice, David H. Roberts, a well-known dealer to glass, of 418 West Broadway, disappeared in the early part of last month, and immediately a number of attachments were taken out against him by tirms in this city and Pittsburgh. In amount they were more than $100,000. It was stated at the time that Roberts had gone to Eu rope with his wife. Papers filed yesterday with the County Clerk state that Roberts is suffering from paresis and is confined in an incane asylum in Liverpool.

His wife, Annie A. Roberts, has made an ap plication for the appointment of commissioners to inquire into her husband's sanity, and Judge Andrews has appointed John H. Judge and Dr Matthew Chaimers as such commission. The presence of Mr. Roberts is not requisite. Roberts states that she lives at 72 West Ninetyfourth street, and that she was married six years ago. She first noticed signs of inwhen he returned from a Western trip. He becan to talk of immense wealth he possessed, and when he returned from a Western trip. He began to talk of immense wealth he possessed, and on Nov. 3 last he said that an aunt of his had died in Ireland, leaving him $750,000, and that he was going to Europe to get it, and would take a bag along to carry the securities. He took the bag when he went to Europe. He also said that a Pullman car man had offered him a million dollars for a patent that he owned.

She says that on Nov. 7. He telegraphed to Pittsburgh inviting a let of his friends to a breakfast on Nov. 9. He told her that there was to be an elaborate menu, including cocktails and prayers.

The matter reached a climax on Saturday, Nov. 9, when he woke up at 1 o'clock in the morning and asked for a morning paper. He saw that the Lucania was to sail that day, and immediately said he would sail in her. He rushed from the house at 5 o'clock and went for his doctor, but the latter not hurrying enough, he left and went to the steamer. His wife found him there, and when she begged him to come home, he rushed up the gang plank iust as the steamer was about to pull out, and she was obliged to with him to protect him, although she had no change of clothes. On the steamer he insulted the passengers, and hit one with a bottle. He was then locked up and kept in close confinement during the trip. When they arrived on the other side he was put in an asylum, and Mrs. Roberts at once took the next steamer home, arriving here on Nov. 24 to find even her home in the hands of the Sheriff. She says that her husband is worth $100,000, that the attachments were unwarranted, as the obligations were not yet due, and that the business and property are being wasted.

Dr. Pointon, the physician on the Lucania, makes an affidavit that Roberts is insane. He says that on the ship Roberts told him of his fabulous wealth, that he was the Emperor of China, that he was building a hotel in New York, in the construction of which diamonds were to be used, and that he had twenty thousand million dollars in the Chemical Bank. He says that he

There are also affidavits of Dr. Duffis, who has Roberts in charge, and Dr. Hills, the family physician, who say that he is insane.

DOLLY UNBURIED SIX DAYS. Complication Caused by the Employment of

Two Undertakers Bridget Lennon, who was known as Dolly among the Chinamen in Dovers street, died at Bellevue Hospital last Wednesday of pneumonts. Mrs. Louis Bender, a missionary, had known her and was interested in her. When she heard of her death she went among the women of Chinatown and asked if they would help to give the dead girl Christian burial. They said they would. Mrs. Bender got Charles Bacigalupo, the Paradise Park undertaker, to go to the Morgue and get the body. The girl had been dead then four days. The girl's two brothers heard of her death about the time Mrs. Bender did, and they hired Undertaker Conron of 340 Madison street on Monday. Conron had buried their mother. He got up to the Morgue just after the other under-taker had taken the body. He went back and reported to the brothers. They wouldn't hear of such a thing as their sister being buried by charity. Conron told them to tell Burigalupo that they did not want him to bury the body. When they went to the Paradise Park undertaking shop Bacigalupo was away.

The body was in the hack room and candles were burning around it. The Lennons say they used gentlemanly language. Bacigaiupo's mensay they were abusive. At all events they didn't get the body. They went back again at 6 o'clock that night win Conron's wagon. Hacigaiupo had not returned. His mensaid they could have the body if they paid $20 for what had already been done. They refused to pay. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning Bacigaiupo got home, and he ordered the men to go away and come back later. They were back at 7 o'clock. Bacigaiupo told them to go to court, and if the Judge told him to give up the body without his pay he would do it. They went to the Heaith Department instead. When President Wilson heard that the girl had been dead six days and the body was still unburied, he sent to the Morgue an order to have the body buried at once. Four days is the longest time a body may be kept unburied. The Morgue authorities said they couldn't take any action.

In the mean time Bacigaiupo made up his mind that it would be better not to have any seandal, and he sent to Corron and told him to come and get the body. The girl was buried in Calvary Cemetery in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Her oid companions in Doyers and Pell streets, when they heard that Bacigaiupo was not to have the funeral, took back their money. reported to the brothers. They wouldn't hear of

SAID HER HUSBAND LAMED HER. She Didn't Limp When Out of Court, So Welch Was Discharged.

Joseph Welch, a variety actor of 150 East Broadway, was accused of assault in Special Sessions on Friday by his wife, Bella, who is 18 years old, and lives at 34 Columbia street. When she entered the court room she limped perceptibly. She said she was a variety performer, and because of her lameness was rendered incapable of following her profession.

Her husband, she said, beat her on Nov. 24 and, when she fell from exhaustion, he kicked and, when she fell from exhaustion, he kicked her, causing the lameness from which she has suffered. Once before, she said, he had abused her in Baltimore, and in consequence of that beating she was confined in an hospital for twenty-five weeks.

Her story was so well told and her lameness so well simulated that every one, exceet Justice Hayes and Assistant District Attorney Burlinger believed her, and her husband was convicted. Upon the application of his counsel, sentence was deferred until yesterday. The Assistant District Attorney conferred with Judge Hayes when the case was disposed of on Friday, and, as a result, Court Officer Quinn was ordered to follow the woman and ascertain whether she retained her limping walk when out of court. The moment she got outside she stopped walking inme and started down stairs as chipper as a schoolight.

Quinn reported this to the Justice, and it was decided to adopt extreme measures with the woman if she appeared at the time set for herband's sentence. She was not present yesterday, however.

day, however.

When Welch was arraigned yesterday Justice Hayes said that it had been the intention of the Court to send him to prison for six months, but when it was discovered that his wife had lied and that she was not lame, the Court had decided to cast out all of her testimony as unworthy of belief. He then discharged Welch.

TO KEEP OUT IMPURE MILK. The Health Board Appoints a Committee and Amends the Code,

The Health Board appointed a committee yesterday to confer with a committee of the State Board of Health on protecting from contamination the milk supply of the city and State, and especially on preventing the sale of milk from tuberculous cows. Typhold fever and consumption are believed to originate in many cases from impure milk. President Charles G. Wilsen, Commissioner George R. Fowler, Dr. Her-

Dr. Ernest J. Lederle, the assistant chemist of the department, compose the local committee.

COL. ROGERS MADE A SCENE

ORDERED HIS WEEPING WIFE OU OF THE COURT ROOM.

Insists that He Is Sane and Porbids the Word's Island Respers to Lay Hands on Him-His Case Goes Over Again and He Goes Back to Ward's Island,

Col. A. H. Rogers reappeared before Justice andrews of the Supreme Court yesterday in babsas corpus proceedings brought by his counsel, Samuel F. Hyman, to secure his release from Ward's Island, where he is kept as insans. Mr. Rogers had come to court collariess and illkempt the previous day, but wore a Piccadilly vesterday and looked well groomed. He sat between two large attendants.

While he was waiting for the Judge, his wife, a pretty little woman with large bazel eyes, ame into court with an elderly woman to see him. She had read of his wild statements that he was ill fed and ill treated on the Island, and she seemed as if she had been weeping. She went toward her husband immediately as she entered the court room. Col. Rogers became greatly excited and ordered her from the room. The attendants could hardly hold him back as he kept telling her to leave. She burst into tears and left the building.

Col. Rogers then stated loudly that he wa starving, and that he had had hardly anything to eat that morning. He took a dollar bill from his pocket, shook it at the crowd, and asked if ome one would not get him a couple of sand wiches. His counsel had two sandwiches and a up of coffee brought in from the lunch counter in the hall, which he devoured as if he were famished. He had hardly finished eating when Justice Andrews appeared.

Lawyer Hyman said that the papers in the case showed that Col. Rogers was not afflicted with suicidal or homicidal mania, and that he could not be committed, but should be left in charge of his friends. It was shown that he had been committed on an order of the Court of Lawyer Hyman asked that the case be sent to a jury, who could, he said, pass upon the matter in an hour. Justice Andrews said he had no power under the Code to do that, but that ap pli-cation could be made to have a Sheriff's jury in an hour. Justice Andrews said he had no power under the Code to do that, but that application could be made to have a Sheriff's Jury pass upon the case in a separate proceeding. All he could do would be to order a reference, which would result in great delay and expense, unless they would submit full affidavits on which he could determine the case.

Col. Rogers came up to his counsel at this point and asked for the Code, to ascertain the power of the Judge. He went carefully over the sections with his counsel. The Judge finally told counsel to submit affidavits to-morrow.

Col. Rogers then addressed the court, saying that he wanted the attendants punished for contempt of court for not obeying the order of the Judge finally told counsel to submit affidavits to-morrow.

Col. Rogers then addressed the court, saying that he wanted the attendants punished for contempt of court for not obeying the order of the Judge and he wanted to see that he was supplied with what he wanted to eat. He said he did not want to go back to the Island. The Judge said he was busy, and would look into those matters to-morrow.

When Rogers got out into the corridor he ordered the attendants not to lay hands on him. They did lay hands on him, and he tried to strike one of them. He appealed to Court Policeman Schneider, saying that he was in the custody of the court and would not go back to Ward's Island. Policeman Louis De Gan from the upper floor came down, and, as Rogers would not walk, the attendants and officers had to slide him down the stairs to the lower floor. He was forced into a cab and driven to the office of the Corporation Counsel, followed by a demonstrative crowd. He was kept in the office while one of the keepers made affidavit about his conduct in Ward's Island. Then he was taken back to the asylum.

NEW MUNICIPAL BUILDING.

Proposal to Cleara Site for It on the Northeast Corner of City Hall Park,

Corporation Counsel Scott and President eroloman of the Beard of Aldermen, who were appointed by the Board of Estimate a commit tee to examine the Register's office and report on the safety of the records and the accomdation for public business, reported resterday recommending that a new building be erected on the northeast corner of City Hall Park, room being made for it by the removal of the present Register's office, the fire-engine house, and the brown-stone building, and that in the new building quarters be provided, not only for the Register but for the Comptroller, the County Clerk, the Surrogate, the Law Department, and the Department of Taxes. The report was laid over, but the members of the Board seemed favorably impressed by it. The report says:

"In the opinion of your committee it is absolutely necessary that proper provision should be made in the near future to place all the offices we have mentioned in a building or buildings which shall be absolutely fireproof, conveniently located, of adequate size, and properly subdivided and arranged to the end that the public precords shall be safely housed and that the public business shall be properly carried on. "The superficial area of the park occupied by the three buildings whose demolition we recommend is nearly 21,000 sourare feet. A building occupying a considerably less number of square feet could readily be designed to afford anule accommodation for the offices referred to. If the County Clerk's office was put on the second story of such a building with the County Court House would conveniently connect the Supreme Court with the Clerk. The removal of the Hall of Records would afford building quarters be provided, not only for the Supreme Court with the Clerk. The re-moval of the Hall of Records would afford moval of the Hall of Records would afford an apportunity for much more convenient access to the Brooklyn Broize than is at present enjoyed by the thousands who daily cross the City Hall Tark going to and from the bridge. The amount that would annually be saved in rentals alone would go far to pay the yearly interest and sinking fund charge upon the cost of such a building, if indeed it did not wholly pay them. Your committee therefore recommend that the Counsel to the Corporation be directed to prepare and present to the Board for approval a bill to effect the purposes outlined in this report."

You say: The Comptroller holds that all these bills were ordered in deliberate evasion of the spirit of the law. He has put the matter in the hands of the Corporation Counsel. The fact is that in all cases where it is for the interest of the city to make purchases in this manner this is done in this department as in others. Just why the Comptroller refuses to pay this lot of bills I do not know, but I do know that he has constantly paid without question bills contracted under precisely the same circumstances by my predecesor, and earlier in the administration of the department by myself. ARCHDEACONRY OF NEW YORK.

It Resolves to Undertake Missionary Work Among the City's Foreign Born.

The annual meeting of the Archdeaconry of New York was held yesterday morning in the chantry of Grace Church, Broadway, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, after Bishop Potter had administered the rite of boly communion in the church. As President of the Archdeaconry the Bishop presided at the meeting, which was largely attended by clerical and lay delegates from several city parishes. Charles P. Bull and lames. Post were rellected as the Secretary and Treasurer of the body respectively for the en-

One of the questions which has caused considerable anxiety to the members of the Archdea-coury during the past few years has been that of missionary work within the city and county of New York, over which the Archdeaconry of New York has jurisdiction. The great bulk of the mission work within the city I mits done by the Episcopal Church is conducted by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society. and has been so conducted for more than half a century. In other counties in the diocese in which the Archdeaconries are the only missionary bodies there is no overlapping of work, as is the case nere under existing condi-tions. It was, therefore, decided some time tions. It was, therefore, decided some time ago that, in order to prevent any overlapping of effort, it would be advisable for the two missionary bedies to have a clearly defined field in which to operate, the sentiment being that the Archdeacomy should bend its energies toward Christianizing the foreign-speaking pecule, while the City Mission should confine itself to the English-speaking portion of the population. As Chairman of the Archdeacomy Committee on General Church Work, the Rev. Archdeacom C. C. Tiffany, in his report, dealt largely with that subject, giving an account of the work among foreigners in this city by some of the parlishes.

A resolution was then adopted that the Arch-among foreigners in this city by some of the parishes.

A resolution was then adopted that the Archdeaconry should undertake work as soon as opportunity shall offer among the foreign-speaking people in this county, as follows: the Scaning People in this county, and Christians, and Chinese.

The Rev. Dr. Satterlee presented a request that the lines of Calvary parish be extended to include the additional territory lying between Fourth and Fifth avenues and Nineteenth and Twenty-seventh streets. A decision of the matter was postponed until a conference can be held between Dr. Satterlee, Dr. Motte of the Church of the Holy Communion, the Rev. Percy S. Grant of Ascension Church, and Dr. Gallaudet of St. Ann's Church, which formerly stood on Eighteenth street, near Fifth avenue, but the congregation of which is now worshipping at the Church of St. John the Evangelist. Dr. Satterlee's required was made because of the area the Church of St. John the Evangelist. Dr. Sat-terlee's request was made because of the area left uncovered by existing parish lines, through the extinction of the Church of the Annuncia-tion, on West Fourteenth street, and the re-moval of St. Ann's Church. The Secretary, Treasurer, and the Rev. Dr. Dunnell were appointed a committee to prepare a map of the city parishes, showing their boun-daries, for the distribution of mission work.

ABUSED DETAINED IMMIGRANTS. A Night Watchman at Ellis Island to be

The result of the investigation of charges of immorality against certain watchmen on Ellis Island was made public yesterday by Commissioner Senner. Lena Grimmer, an immigrant who arrived on the steamship H. H. Another detained immigrant woman also accused Kuchenbrod He will be discharged. George Burns, head of the night watch, and the matron on night duty in the women's department may be transferred to day work, not because they had any knowledge of the watchmen's wongdoing, but because they ought to have known of it. Dr. Senner will recommend in this report to the Treasury Department the establishment of quarters for detained women, not accessible to men.

Watchman Kuchenbrod says he went into the women's room to call them for breakfast. Nov. 15, declared that Watchman Klin Kuch-

A Little Misunderstanding as to the Wages of a New Lot of Them. The men, however, have a grievance, and are anxious that it be settled before they begin work.
They compain that the contractor engaged them at $1.50 per day, and now that they have come to the canal, only 80 cents a day is offered them, which is the price the company has been giving to ordinary laborers.
Their statement, however, is not true. M. system will be extended to all the lines of the commany not equipped with cables.

The company now has 300 cable cars in constant service, and 650 horse cars, omploying in all nearly 2,800 men. On the Broadway cable line the men work 9½ hours a day. An hour is allowed for lunch. Six round trips constitute a day's work for a gripman, for which $2.40 is paid. If a man works extra he is paid for it, and the men usually earn about $17.50 a week. The entire service is governed by civil service rules, and a system of promotion and increase in pay has had good effects on the men. Applicants for situations are examined carefully as to their sobriety and interrate. Of the 500 gripmen employed only eight left the company during the months between May and October. Six of these were discharged for drinking, which the company will not allow, and two resigned.

Conductors on the cars generally look upon their employment as only temporary, and nearly 100 are discharged every month. The company does not discharge men for "knocking down fares." To call him dishonest might hurt his feelings, said Mr. Vreeland; "he is discharged for 'neglecting to register fares." Vreeland said that he considered vesti-ALBANY, Dec. 3.-Gov. The calendar of the appellate divisions is to be made by the clerk of each division for the first term of court, and as often thereafter as the Justices rect. A case on appeal from a non-enumer-ed motion shall be flied with the clerk fifteen ated motion shall be filed with the cierk fifteen days after the appeal is taken.

The appealiate divisions are authorized to make a rule for the exchange of briefs, but no general rule upon this subject was adopted. The Justices decided not to adopt a gown. It was decided that the Justices have no power to hear exparte motions at special terms.

Justice ingraham reported that he had ordered a seal for each appellate division.

President Cleveland Rewards a Brave British Skipper.

The services of a brave sea Captain were recognized at the office of the British Consul-General yesterday afternoon, and the occurrence recalls the daring rescue of the master and crew of the American schooner E. H. Cornell at sea on March 22 last. Capt. William J. Enright of the British steamship Etona had no idea when he rescued those on the fast-sinking American schooner that his action would call forth the praise and remembrance of the Chief forth the praise and remembrance of the Chief Executive of this country. The memento is in the form of a fine pair of French binocular glasses, on which is inscribed:

"From the President of the United States to Capt. William J. Enright of the British steamship Etona. In recognition of his humans services in effecting the rescue of the master and crew of the American schooner E. H. Cornell, March 22, 1895."

Consul-General Sanderson, in presenting the March 22, 1805."
Consul-General Sanderson, in presenting the glasses, said that the bravery of both British and American scamen was proverbial, and in showing appreciation for Capt. Enright's brave act the United Statesonly tie the knot of friendship between them and Great Britain tighter.

Mr. Vreeland said that he considered vestibuled cars as utterly impractical in a crowded city like New York, for in winter the glass in the windows would become coated with frost and prevent the gripman from seeing plainly. Mr. Vreeiand explained that transfers are issued wherever they can be, but that where a transfer would allow the passenger to ride all day in a circle for one fare transfers are not issued. The company issues about 80,000 passes each day on all its lines, representing about $1.500.000 cach year. Mr. V ecland thinks the company gives the public a million dollars a year in car fare. Last year the company carried 140,000,000 passengers, and 30,000,000 more on transfers. The increase in the number of passengers carried on all the roads cach year is due, Mr. Vreeland thinks, to the normal increase in the population. The increase this year has been less than in former years.
